Manassas Christian School and Loch Lomond Elementary School
Part of the mission at Manassas Christian School is to design opportunities for individual students to become responsible citizens and valued members of the community.

Through direct support for Loch Lomond Elementary School, which includes donations of school supplies, food for the food pantry, gifts for every student during the holiday season, and staff recognition, Manassas Christian School has been able to not only assist their neighbors in the community, but also teach students to work together to ensure excellence for everyone.

Science Application International Corporation (SAIC) and Tyler Elementary School
SAIC is a technology and engineering company whose partnership with Tyler Elementary School helps students become excited about science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. Its curriculum and programs, through extra academic support after school and hands-on science lessons, SAIC has created programs that can be used to complement mathematics and science curriculum and strengthens students' foundation. SAIC knows that for students to be successful in the future they will need to have developed 21st century skills to include critical thinking, knowledge-sharing, and pursuing personal and aesthetic growth. Through the partnership with SAIC, students are well on their way to acquiring these skills.

Virginia Cooperative Extension Prince William and the PWCS Office of Student Learning
Since 2007, Virginia Cooperative Extension Prince William has provided Prince William County Public Schools (PWCS) with opportunities that directly align with our mission that all students will learn to their fullest potential.

Their Environmental and Natural Resources program provides current research-based environmental education programs, teacher training, and on-site technical assistance for teachers and administrators who desire a school garden or outside classroom space.

2014 Partner in Education

Life Champ Martial Arts
Life Champ Martial Arts’ Character Enrichment Program incorporates physical exercise with life skill lessons for students in PWCS.

Through their specialized series of classes introduces basic martial arts and supports student concentration, learning skills, cooperation, and respect.

In addition to the after school classes offered at discounted rates, Life Champ Martial Arts provides donations to schools for materials and much needed resources they may not otherwise have. All profits from classes offered at participating schools go directly back into the classrooms.

Life Champ Martial Arts not only supports education, but also provides character development and enrichment programs.

The Safe at Home Safe Alone program through Prince William 4-H prepares parents and teaches students life skills and safety when home alone; and the Healthy Eating Active Living Program teaches children to prepare healthy food and incorporate exercise for a healthy lifestyle.

Through collaborative partnerships like these, Virginia Cooperative Extension Prince William is helping shape Prince William County students and teachers to develop citizenship and life skills in environmental education, nutrition, and safety to become our community’s future leaders.

Congratulations and Thank You!

Thank you to our sponsors who supported the students, staff, and educators that make our School Division such a success.

Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Steven L. Walts, shared an update on the start of another successful school year during his “State of the Schools” address at the Kelly Leadership Center. This event shared information about how businesses can partner with the Prince William County Public Schools Education Foundation and the School Division to help strengthen and enhance local public education in support of our 95 schools and more than 83,000 students.

SPARK encourages community partners to become involved with student achievement, programs, and innovations. SPARK thanks the following donors for their support of the 13th Annual Superintendent’s Business Breakfast.

Message from the President

MS. AMY HARRIS OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE’S SySTEMic SOLUTIONS

I am pleased to have the opportunity to serve as the President of the SPARK Board of Directors for the 2014-15 school year. I have been directly involved with Prince William County Public Schools (PWCS) for over a decade and have benefited firsthand from the support of SPARK as a former teacher and school administrator. As president of the Board, I am delighted to be able to leverage support for students, teachers, and staff to strengthen the foundation of education in this World-Class School Division.

Supported by donations from local businesses, SPARK has been able to raise more than half a million dollars in grant funding for Prince William County teachers and schools, as well as for School Division departments, staff, and offices, through our “Innovative Grants” program. These funds allow schools and departments to implement programs that would not be possible otherwise. The Foundation continues to support the use of SchoolDivision, a one-of-a-kind website solution, in all PW Division schools, and continues to support students pursuing careers in teaching through the Dr. Edward L. Kelly Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Each year we embark upon new initiatives to help make education brighter for our students. We now support more than seven scholarship funds; play a vital role in the V.S. STAR computer education and refurbishment program; provide clothes and gifts to families in need via our Holiday Helpers initiative; and continue to grow our fundraising campaign, Eats 4 Education.

The support that SPARK is able to leverage enriches students’ lives every day. These children are the basis for our community’s future growth and prosperity, and it is only possible to build on that strong foundation with the continued support of our corporate and community partnerships. The quality of our schools is more than simply a desirable community feature. A strong school division is vital for the future success of our nation, and with the experience and determination of the SPARK Board of Directors, we can guarantee that our success will only continue to strengthen Prince William County Public Schools.

We invite you to offer support for the Foundation’s initiatives and help provide opportunities for PWCS students to reach their greatest potential. Your involvement will be tremendously rewarding to you and to our community’s students. Call us at 703.791.8001 to find out more.

Sincerely,

Amy L. Harris
